Stacy Jewel Foundation

LIFE COACH
&
NONPROFIT

Become a mentor

Mission Statement: Put functioning, reliable, self-aware people back in the community

Slogan: How you friend yourself will determine how you friend others.

Policy: Find counselors, therapist, psychologist, psychiatrist or coaches to help guide clients in a life-changing way.

Vision: To promote well-being by support and care without judgement.

Strategy: Encouraging empowerment for people to take control of their own lives.

1

INSPIRE

Help people in your community be their best selves.

2

BUILD

Be apart of a network that works for purpose.

3

LEGACY

Leave a legacy of growth.

Help People
Mentor, inspire & help people become the best versions of themselves.

Build Your Community
When you help people that have been through similar issues as you, it allows you to heal, them to heal and the community to become stronger. You are giving back to a cause that doesn't always allow people to live their best lives. It hurts.

Information

The max number of people to mentor at one time is two. We know that you have a life to live. This program are for those who want to be a life coach, therapist or just need extra motivation in life. Mentorship takes at least 5 hours a month for the following.

One-on-one meetings
Real life experiences
Progress reviews
Educational information

Mentorship for:
Career
Relationships
Life Purpose
Goal Setting
Stress Management
Communication

Qualifications:

You must be a licensed therapist or psychologist or be a life coach with experience in this field.

If you haven't already please take a look at our blog. If you would like to contribute to our blog please include that in your email. We want to build a strong place of information for clients to feel safe, secure and welcomed to their new path.

We have a private social media space that you will be sponsored in once you are approved for the mentorship program.

NEXT STEPS

Please submit your resume and/or business information with the subject being Pay it forward to stacyjewelfoundation@gmail.com.

Your information will be reviewed and you will be contacted by Stacy Ayiers-Latimore with further information. It is preferred to have a phone call or coffee date to get an idea if you will be a great fit for our mentorship program. The goal is to inspire women like ourselves to build, grow and love the legacy they will leave.

One commitment would be to attend at least one annual conference provided by The Stacy Jewel Foundation. You will be provided free ticketing for these events.